To: Scotts Bluff County Board of Commissioners,

Please be advised, Raymond Shultz, who was on the Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Committee expired on December 30, 2025 and his term was from 6/30/2024 to 6/30/2029.

Attached is a nomination from VFW Post 1681 at Gering, NE to nominate Charles Evelo to complete the term on the Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Committee.

Charles Evelo was in the US Air Force from 6/19/1996 to 7/31/2014 and is the Commander of VFW Post 1681.

I would recommend Mr. Evelo's appointment to finish Raymond Shultz five year term on the Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Committee.

Sincerely,

Matthew B. Meyers

The Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Office assists veterans and their dependents in obtaining information about any V.A. benefits they may be interested in and also assists them in working up the applications and obtaining the needed supporting documentation. The Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Office also assists veterans in making application to have their eligibility determined for treatment in a VA Medical Center.

Disabled American Veterans vans provide transportation for veterans to both the Hot Springs, SD VA Medical Center and the Cheyenne, WY VA Medical Center on Thursdays. The Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Office sets up the DAV Van volunteer drivers and the contact point for veterans who need rides to the Hot Springs, SD VA Medical Center and the Cheyenne, WY VA Medical Center.

The Hot Springs, SD VA Medical Center has an outpatient clinic in Scottsbluff, NE at 701 E. Overland. It is open five days a week from 8:00 am to 4:30 pm, telephone number 308-225-5330. To be seen at the Outpatient Clinic at Scottsbluff, NE a veteran must be enrolled at the Hot Springs, SD VA Medical Center.

Any veteran interested in serving on the Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Committee to complete the term starting 6/30/2024 through 6/30/2029, please submit an application at the Scotts Bluff County Veterans Service Office in the Administration Building in Gering, NE. This application must be completed by close of business on January 30, 2026. Please be advised the position is a volunteer appointed position.
